Person in Charge : Agnus Joy

Brief Report

Paying tribute to the eminent poet and activist Smt. Sugathakumari, the Sanskriti - The literary club of Nirmala Arts & Science College conducted a poetry appreciation of the “Poem the Monsoon Green” on 24th December 2020 via Google meet at 3 pm. Sugathakumari's "Poem the Monsoon Green" is a beautiful ode to the monsoon season in Kerala, India. The poem describes the lush greenery and the rejuvenation of nature during this time. The use of vivid imagery and metaphors creates a serene and calming atmosphere, making it a delightful read for anyone who appreciates nature and its beauty. As part of remembrance a short biographical description of Sugathakumari teacher, her rare pictures were present as a tribute to her. The effort of the students was much appreciated by all the faculty members.

NOVEL REVIEW - THE WALLS BY VAIKOM MUHAMMED BASHEER

Date	: 21 st January 2021
Mode	: Online (Google Meet)
Resource Person	: Dr George Joseph Assistant professor in Malayalam
Number of Participants	: -
Person in Charge	: Agnus Joy

Brief Report

As part of the 113th birthday of the famous Malayalam writer Vaikom Muhammed Basheer, Sanskriti - The literary club of Nirmala Arts & Science College on 21st January 2021 via Google meet at 8:30 PM conducted the review of his famous work the Walls. "The Walls" by Vaikom Muhammad Basheer is a thought-provoking novel that explores the themes of social inequality and oppression. The story revolves around the lives of a group of prisoners in a jail, who are forced to confront their own inner demons as they struggle to survive within the confines of the prison walls. Basheer's writing is poignant and evocative, and he does a masterful job of creating a sense of tension and drama throughout the narrative. The review was done by Dr. George Joseph, Malayalam professor and he also recommended the participants to read the novel. Principal Dr Geetha C A, Dean Prof. Daisy N O and felicitated the function.
