Brief Report

The Film club conducted the screening of four short films and short film review in association with the inauguration of the club on 3rd March 2020 Tuesday at 2.00 P M in the seminar hall. The chief guest of the day was the famous theatre artist, story teller and founder of Aala (The space for art and related fields), Sri Manu Jose. Four short films were screened after the talk by Sri Manu Jose. Veli, the short film which is a protest against caste system was much appreciated. Zoo, a perfect montage that portrayed many similarities between human and animal also received huge comments from the audience. The short films titled Ring the Bell and Staring Hearts also received good appreciation from students. The whole interactive session was a true blend of information and entertainment.

The programme was conducted in the college seminar hall with all its formalities. The event started with a blissful prayer of Anagha V P, student of the Department of Psychology. The welcome speech was delivered by Miss Bela C Baby, convenor of film club. N A S C manager Sri George Kuriakose delivered the presidential address. Principal Dr. Geetha C A felicitated the gathering. Dean of Studies Prof. Daisy N O enlightened the audience with her words. Chief guest of the day Sri Manu Jose made a delightful lecture and inaugurated the club. The formal function ended with a vote of thanks by first year Psychology student Sandra Zachria.
