Brief Report

A composition in verse, a highly developed artistic form, poetry evokes creativity and imagination in one's soul. Sanskriti, the Literary Club of Nirmala Arts & Science College conducted a poetry writing competition on 15th July 2022 with the intention to develop students' inventiveness and artistic skill. The details of the competition were circulated among the students four days before (11th July 2022). The theme chosen was Overcoming Emotional Numbness; prevailing trouble among teen. The programme was conducted in our college seminar hall at 11 am. Students from various departments participated in the competition contributing their beautiful poems. The covenor of the club Sreelakshmi S was in charge of the competition. Each entry deserved appreciation. The contestants tried their best to communicate maximum about the topic in the fewest possible number of words. Nisha Antony and George Joseph were the judges. The poems were the product of brilliant imagination that aroused in the minds of our blooming buds. Surya Vrinda M U from the department of commerce was the winner.

THE WOUND THAT NEVER HEALS

You threw me into the river like a rock.
But you didn't know how deep will the rock goes
I can always put a smile on my face
But you never know what I am hiding in the smile,
So tell me where I should go first?
To the right where nothing is left
Or to the left where nothing's right
I just want to fly with you
But you sliced my wings.
I was coming to the light from dark
And you gently pushed me back into the dark
And I realised; whatever happens

WAS THAT YOU ?

Somebody did a Golden Deed,
Proving himself a friend in need.
Somebody sang a Cheerful Song,
Brightening the skies the whole day lo!
Was that Somebody You?

Someday's filled the day with Light,
Constantly chased away the Night.
Somebody's work bore joy and peace,
Surely his life shall never cease.
Was that Somebody you?

But you didn't know how deep will the rock goes
I can always put a smile on my face
But you never know what I am hiding in the smile,
So tell me where I should go first?
Or to the left where nothing's right
I just want to fly with you
But you sliced my wings.
I was coming to the light from dark
And you gently pushed me back into the dark
And I realised; whatever happens
There is light.
There are always shadows to be found
Sometimes weak people have to be in a relationship
So they can feel important and loved
But once they enjoy their own company
They become privileged, and we are living
In the world Of promises built by liars
As long as I know
But it still shines every day

VAIDEHI

The people who came to see my 'DEHI', aren't here to mourn.
People came here in search of stories.
